*1944, EE, 2015,
war / drama, 100 min*

In the new historical film Elmo Nyugenena „1944“ considered the military events in Estonia in 1944, during the period from July of fights Simimäe until November, when the peninsula of Sorve was already conquered by the Soviet Army. War is shown through the eyes of participants in the events on both warring sides - the Estonians who fought on the side of the German army in the 20th Estonian division Waffen-SS, and as part of the 8th Estonian Rifle Corps of the Soviet Army. For residents of Estonia it was a war in which everyone makes their own choices. It is with such hard choices facing the main characters of the film - the soldiers of the opposing sides Carl Tammik and Urey Jogi - as well as their co-workers, relatives, friends and even unknown people.

Underdog

Svenskjävel, NO, SE, 2014, drama, 97 min

23-year-old „Dino“ (Bianca Kronlöf) dreams of a different life. Like an abundance of Swedes her age, she has fled the mass unemployment of her home country in search of a more worthwhile existence in a nouveau-riche Oslo. But her new life is caught in deadlock - Dino finds herself stuck in a destructive loop of temporary jobs, financial trouble and hard partying. A broken arm incidentally leads to a position as a housekeeper in a Norwegian middle-class home. Dino is thrown into a reality very far from her own. During a few sultry summer weeks she ends up the centre of an odd love triangle, an unpredictable struggle for affection as well as dominance. „Underdog“ is a tender and raw story of privilege and longing, yet at the same time a humorous and unmerciful observation of the shifted power balance between Sweden and Norway - an actuality where Swedes have become the Norwegians' servants.
